19 MEMORY WAVES 48

Gayle Stubblefield

Foreword

We are sending forth this number of Memory Waves, trusting that its pictures and other pages will give a simple but lasting record of the work and play of our High School days. Although they have been deeply imprinted into the hearts and lives of the students, still it requires the aid of the printed page to keep the activities of school days fresh in memory and to make friendship more durable.

If we, the staff, have succeeded in this to the extent that you, in turning these pages in future years, shall feel again the joy of high school days and the thrill of recollection, then let our reward be found in that success alone.

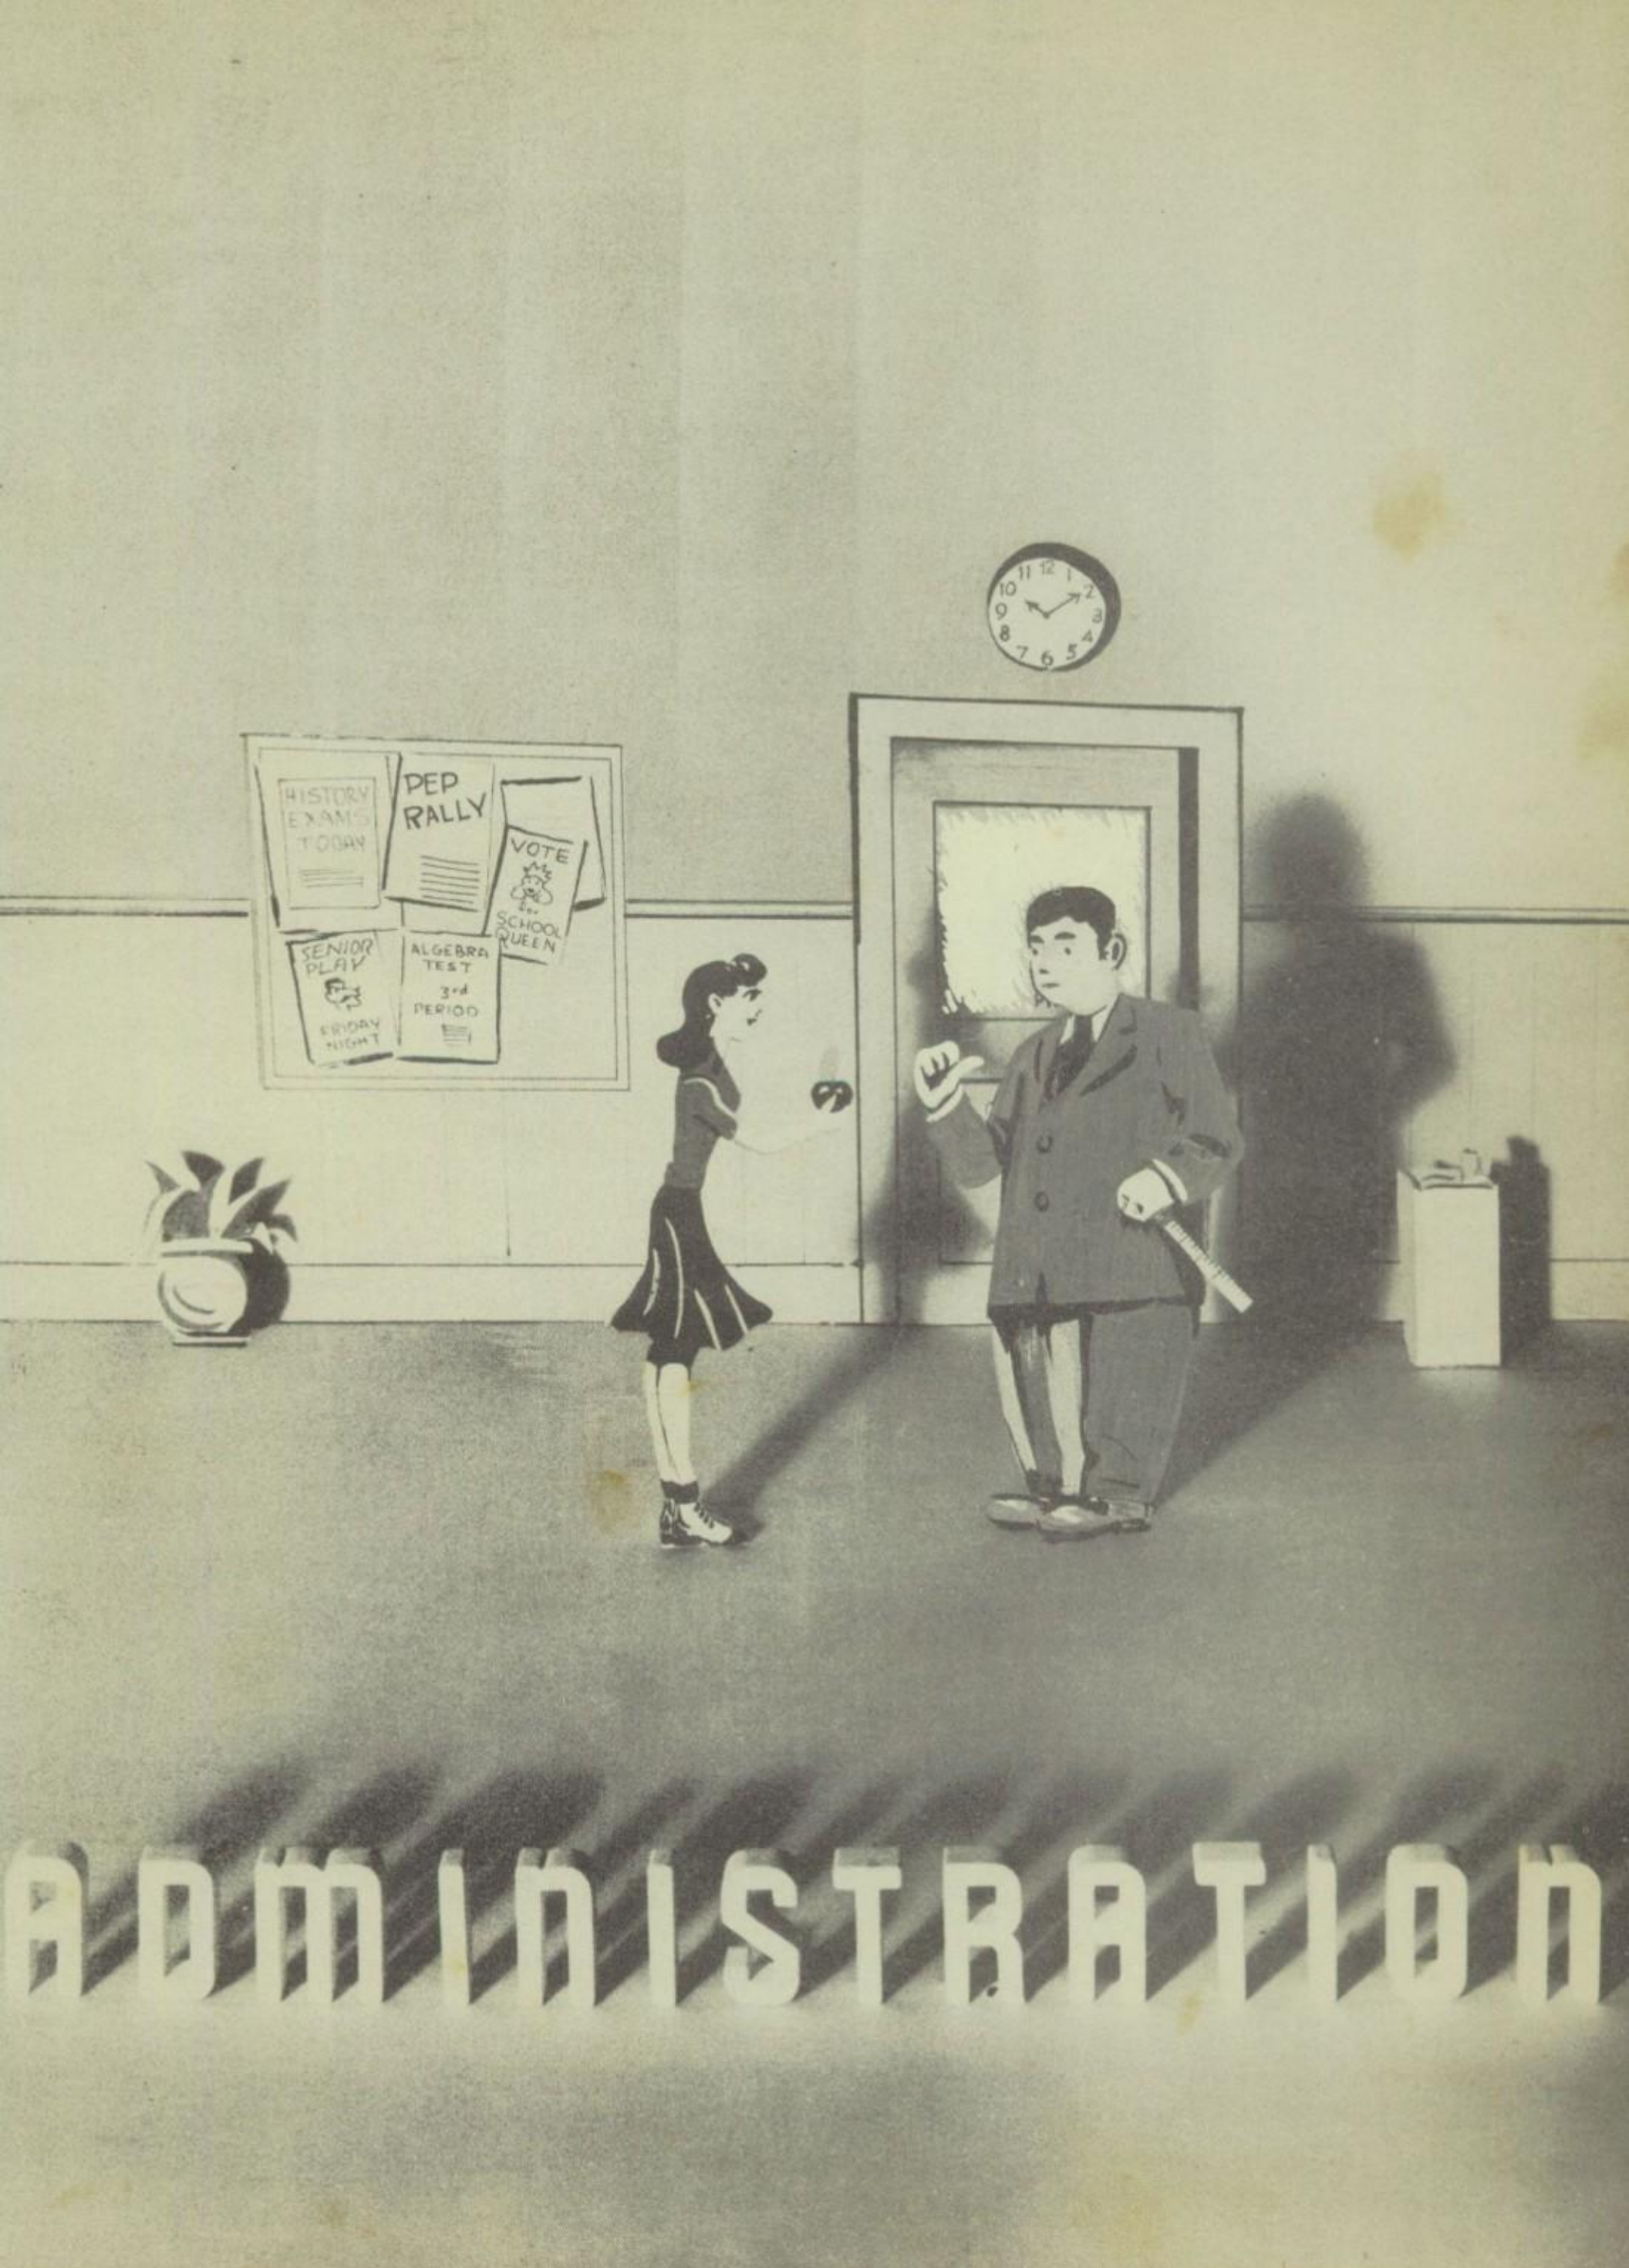
The Staff

DEDICATION

To Miss Arrington, our math teacher, the senior class wishes to dedicate the 1948 Memory Waves remembering the problems she helped us to solve.

To Mrs. Walker, our sponsor, the senior class wishes to dedicate the 1948 Memory Waves—through remembrance of her loving personal care and interest to her students.

So this, "THE MEMORY WAVES", is dedicated to you, Mrs. Walker and Miss Arrington, because the students admire you and love you as true friends. They hope that throughout the years it will bring back to you memories of your association with them as vividly as they know it will remind them of your help to them while they were youths in High School.



ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE STUDENT BODY:

You are proud of your ANNUAL. The Staff has done a splendid job in giving you an annual that you can treasure for years and years.

For each of you I wish many years of successful endeavor; a spirit of curiosity that will enrich your life as you grow older and wiser; a faithful devotion to duty and right; unselfish service to your fellow man.

Sincerely,

Cecil C. Belgard

SENIORS

CLASS OFFICERS

Pres., Henry Walker
Vice Pres., Elmo Foster
Secretary, Willie Dee Howard

MOTTO

"Alawys climbing, Never falling.

CLASS COLORS

Blue and White

HENRY WALKER

He is gentle, he is shy, but there's mischief in his eye.

WILLIE DEE HOWARD

Marks, not men, have been my aim.

JOANNE SIBLEY

Happy am I, from care I'm free; why aren't they all just like me.

IRWIN ROBERTS

This is not conceit my friends, it is but personal recognition of my own excellence.

NAN SCOTT

Nan is merry and popular too; without her smile, what would '48 do?

FLORISE BALL

Good humor is the clear blue sky of her soul.

CLYDE SLAUGHTER

With pride in his heart and defiance in his eye, Clyde always fought for Pollock Hi.

IRISE BALL

We love her for her smile, her looks and her sweet disposition.

SENIORS

DON ELDA HERRELL

To any class of any kind she'd be an acquisition. She's amiable to everyone, it is just her disposition.

WILLIAM MORGAN

Never over serious but a real good fellow.

HUBERT BLACKWELL

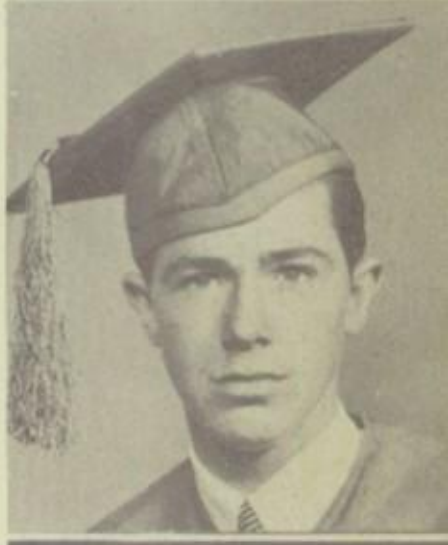
Actions speak louder than words.

CLARA MADDOX

My whole life I have lived in pleasant thoughts.

MARY BELLE SIMMONS

If e'er she knew an evil thought, she spoke no evil word.



TRAVIS BEAVERS

Not afraid of work, but not in sympathy with it.

EVERETT COODY

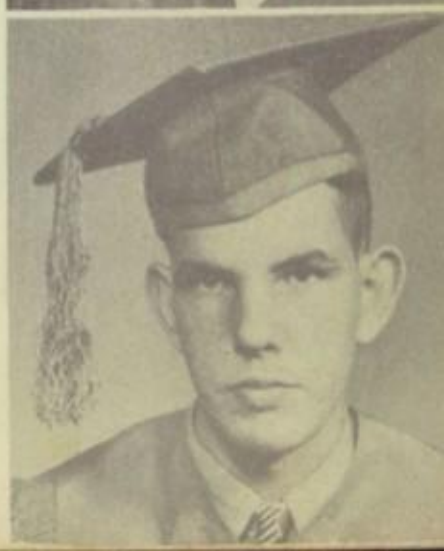
To play the game for all there's in it, to play the game and work to win it.

KEITHER COGDILL

A true friend will always be a friend.

RUTH JORDAN

True and faithful to the ones she loves.



HUEY BANDY

Quiet and diligent in all his work, and he disturbs no one.

SENIORS

DIXIE McKAY McCORMICK

Quietness is an indication of ability to think.

C. L. ATES

Do it, do it right, but put it off till tomorrow.

ELMO FOSTER

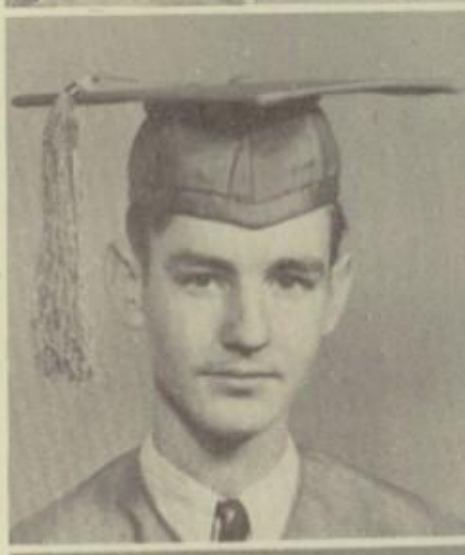
Beware! I may do something startling yet!

MELLIE STORYE

Prudent, quiet and ever right, always smiling and always bright.

BETTYE JO KEES

Quiet, unassuming, one must know her to appreciate her.



ODELL KIRTLAND

The least said is the easiest mended.

MARY CHEVEALLIER

Always ready to lend a hand.

J. R. JAMESON

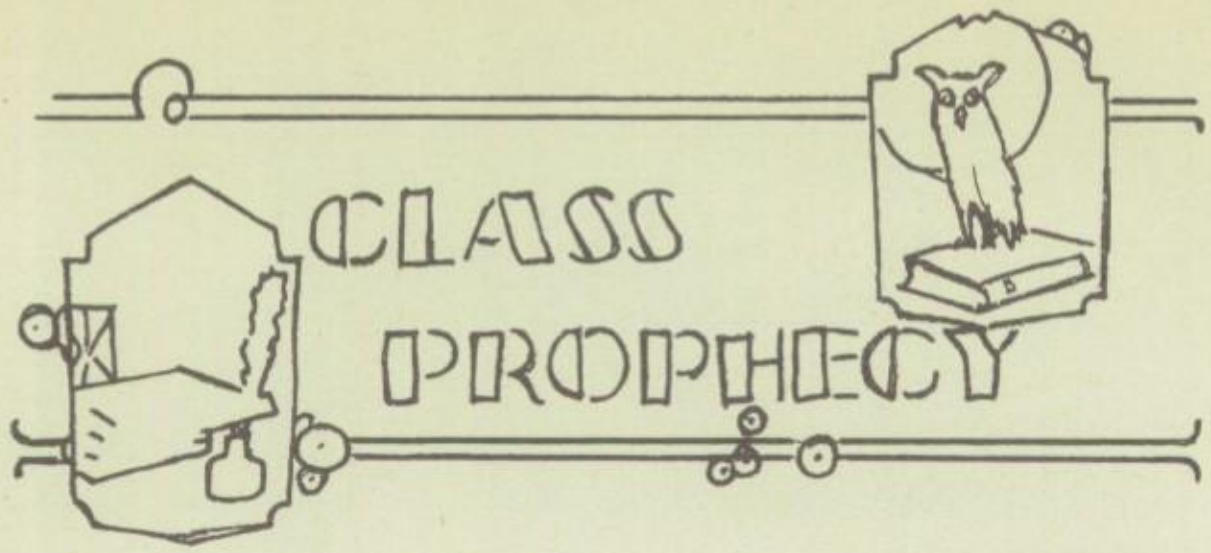
To learn or not to learn, that is the question.

HAROLD GRANGER

Others may be right, but I doubt it.

LEONARD MORGAN

Oh! Sleep! It is a gentle thing, beloved from class to class.



Listen, all young and old; to the words of the prophets which have been revealed unto them by the powers that be.

As time passes, the fture is unveiled and we see the members of the class of 1948 in 1954.

We look into the future and see Mary Bell Simmons, our modest, quiet classmate, now the owner of a beautiful home. Oh, yes a husband too ! ! Pollock's leading song and dance man is now the title bestowed upon Irwin Roberts. Willie Dee Howard is radiant in a bridal gown and standing beside her is—now who could that be ? ? ? Clyde Slaughter is having a hard time keeping away from the girls—as per usual! ! Don Elda Herrell is now married to Murvin and they have a beautiful home in Simms. Henry J. Walker, our class president, is now the owner of a large firm in Chicago. We see Nan Scott running down the street with pencil and paper trying to get a scoop for the New York Times. Everett Coody is now studying law preparing to be the Governor of Louisiana. Joanne Sibley is walking down the corridor in the Baptist Hospital where she is Supervisor of Nurses. Leonard Morgan is now operating a mimeograph machine in a large downtown office. Irise and Florise Ball are now married to twins, and are doing a swell job of raising triplets! ! We see C. L. Ates trying to repair his old A-Model. Clara Maddox is still living at Simms waiting for her husband, who is in the Air Corps. William Morgan is writing newspaper articles on "Little Men Make Big Success". Our dear classmate, Mellie Storye, has now become a perfect wife and home-maker. Johnny Carter is now a famous author of "Control Over Temper". Keither Cogdill is now secretary of The Standard Printing Co. Harold Granger is studying speech so he can be Everett's campaign manager. Ruth Jordan has now finished college and is coaching basketball at Centenary. J. R. Jameson is the owner of a large painting concern. Alas, Dixie McKay has found her true love and is happily married living on Big Creek. Hubert Blackwell, with great ability in commerce, is now the editor of a newspaper. Bettye Kees with her quiet and sweet ways has now become a teacher at the Tiny Tot Kindergarten in Pineville. Odell Kirtland is still advertising for a wife. Huey Bandy, with his quiet ways, is now driving a schoolbus. Mary Lou Cheveallier is still happily married to Jack and living in Arkansas. Elmo Foster is considering taking a position with the Ford Company, teaching buyers how to drive a car perfectly. Travis Beavers is the very stern judge of Pollock.

CLASS WILL

To our principal, Mr. Belgard we leave our "hopes" for an improved school in the following years.

To the faculty we leave our fears and hopes. "Hope we pass"; "Fear if we don't."

To the dear Juniors, our rightful and worthy successors, we gladly leave to you the following personal items:

Mary Belle Simmons wills her way of holding her temper to Wanda Davis.

Irwin Roberts leaves his way with the women (maybe with a little more practice he will do more good) to Bobby Mercer.

Willie Dee Howard leaves her ability to stay calm and cool to Pearlie M. Boren.

Clyde Slaughter leaves his Boy Scout Honors to Insley Morrison.

Don Herrell leaves her quiet disposition to Jane Granger.

Henry Walker leaves his leadership to Pat Simms and Rance Robertson.

Nan Scott wishes to leave Bobbie Langston her mischievous ways.

Everett Coody and Leonard Morgan will their basketball to Pat Milan and L. V. Robertson.

Joanne Sibley leaves her ability to swing on to her boyfriend to Nellois Wills.

Irise Ball leaves her friendly ways to Barbara Morrow.

Florise Ball leaves her witty humor to Bobbie Lincecum.

C. L. Ates and J. R. Jameson leave their talking ability to Lloyd Kirtland and W. K. Brown.

Clara Maddox leaves her neatness in dress to Vera Yerby.

William Morgan leaves his Chemistry Book to Jimmie Womack and James Jones.

Mellie Storye and Dixie McKay leave their secrets to Rita Atwood and Gelena Whitaker.

Johnnie Carter wills his stubbornness to Lee Roy Dukes.

Keither Cogdill wills her music ability to Jackie Walker.

Harold Granger leaves his sportsmanship to Bobby Nugent.

Ruth Jordon leaves her love for basketball to Maurine Vallery.

Hubert Blackwell leaves his typing ability to Billy Lutes.

Betty Kees leaves her quiet ways to Helen Carter, Lurena Kelly and Lorene Shackelford.

Odell Kirtland leaves his ability to get along with teachers to Benny Weems (knowing how bad he needs it.)

Huey Bandy leaves his quiet ways to Wallace Barron.

Mary Cheveallier leaves her appetite to Nelsine Colman and Cecil Aven.

Elmo Foster leaves his ability to get along with some teachers to "Ainsworth".

Travis Beavers leaves his gabs to Russell Lemmons and Leon Gintz.

James Scott wills his atomic strength to Donald Harvey and Trois Nugent.

As a class we wish to leave with the Student Body and Faculty the fact that we have truly enjoyed the days at POLLOCK with YOU.

CERTAIN NAMES ADD VALUE TO GOOD FURNITURE BUT NOTHING TO ITS COST . .

Furniture of the finest type enbodies something more than its fine materials, its distinction in design, its rare beauty. Its Quality is not confined to any of the elements that compose it, but is the principle of excellence shining through all of them.

That Quality, so much to be desired in fine furniture, will be found in the degree that the desire and ability to excell are in the house from which it comes.

There are certain names that, alone, are the hallmark of QUALITY. Like the eagles and double eagles of the United States, they are found only on articles of genuine worth. Merchants are known by their merchandise . . . as people are known by the company they keep.

For many years this store has adhered to the policy of offering only furniture of known Quality. We do not deal in nameless merchandise of questionable worth. The prestige of the name on each piece of furniture adds much to its value . . . but nothing to its cost.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are publishing 1948 Annuals for more than 900 Colleges and High Schools. This patronage indicates a wealth of ideas and service which has no doubt made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
